

Code of Conduct Policy

A Code of Conduct is expected of every member of the ENAO Board of Directors when conducting Association business.

- Meetings will start and end on time.
- Members will treat each other with respect by listening to each other and by not interrupting.
- Decisions will be made through a voting process.
- Identified issues must be kept confidential and will not be discussed outside the board meeting except by board members in private.
- All board members are encouraged to express their opinions.
- Observers at the board meeting will abide by the Observer Policy.
- Dress Code for all ENAO meetings is business casual, no jeans.
- There will be every attempt made to resolve sensitive issues during the board meeting with all present.
- All board members will be expected to participate fully in all discussions at the table and electronically between meetings.
- All board members will act professionally and responsibly in the conduction of ENAO business.

Revised 2016.